

DW29 - mystery number.

Guards

SCULPTOR: Leigh Pamment

DW29 was first allocated, in about 1991/2 to this couple of Guards – who may be Sam Vimes and Nobby, but we’re not sure.

The figure was not approved and not produced commercially.

On a 1992 order form the number DW29 is given to Cut-me-own-throat-Dibbler. However, the number 29 has disappeared on the 1994 order form and Dibbler is DW35.

Collectors may find rare pieces with these rather confusing numbers.

We think it is a charming example of Leigh’s much missed talents!
